DON'T MISS...

Neighborhood beat A trio of local artists—Everton Sylvester, Gabri Christa and Toshi Reagon (from left)—recently teamed up with WFUV-FM (90.7) and the Creative Time cultural organization to record Local Frequencies, a collection of compositions each of the three created about his or her neighborhood. They live in Bedford-Stuyvesant, the North Shore of Staten Island and Crown Heights, respectively, and each work reflects the unique rhythms of one of those places. The CD is available for free (for locations, go to www.creativetime.org), but you can hear the whole thing on WFUV's The Whole Wide World on Friday 2-8-11pm, and again on Wednesday 7 at 8pm, as part of City Folk.
