AIRING HER OPINIONS Artist Jenny Holzer's vaguely political aphorisms will find a large audience when airplanes fly along the Hudson River this weekend trailing banners emblazoned with her words. Creative Time produces the project, "Truisms," which can be viewed all along the waterfront.

ART

FLIGHTS OF FANCY A squadron of airplanes will fly along the Hudson River this weekend trailing banners emblazoned with artist Jenny Holzer's "Truisms" — such as "Sloppy Thinking Gets Worse Over Time" and "Action Causes More Trouble Than Thought" — and a quote from Abraham Lincoln, "Whatever You Are, Be a Good One." The high-flying art is a production of Creative Time. Saturday–Monday, 1–3:30 p.m., between the Verrazano Bridge and the George Washington Bridge, best views along Hudson waterfront from New York and New Jersey, times subject to change, 212-206-6674 ext. 2 for up-the-minute information, free.
