THE LIARS, BLOOD ON THE WALL, & THE ROGERS SISTERS
Rock Out at New Venue Volume to Benefit Creative Time

Remember the glory days of those pulsating summer nights inside the caverns of the Brooklyn Bridge Anchorage? The Anchorage may be locked up but it's former host, Creative Time, New York's maverick public arts presenter, still knows how to throw a party. Going back to its bedrock roots, on December 18, 2003 Creative Time will present a one-off jam featuring darling-of-the-moment, The Liars, and sets by The Rogers Sisters and Blood on the Wall. Join us for a night of thrusts, sweat, and beer, and preview Williamsburg's latest watering hole, Volume (official opening 1/04). The concert will benefit Creative Time, the nonprofit organization responsible for Sonic Youth, Thomas Brinkmann, and RET.INEVITABLE under the Brooklyn Bridge and fireworks, skywriting, and Tribute in Light in the skies over New York City.
